MigratED: The project partners met in Athens October 3-4th. The meeting was attended by Jordan, a newer member to the team.

FWC also held 2 national workshops in collaboration with the Ministry of Education and the Pedagogical Institute of Cyprus. The workshops, in Nicosia and Limassol, focused on human rights, intercultural dialogue, global citizenship and how they can be and are embedded in the education curriculum.

GEGL: Ongoing workshops in support of the LAPs round 2. FWC also hosted a national training with a focus on how to promote sustainability to youth.

We also said goodbye to Helene Josephides. We were happy to have her as part of the team, and wish her the best!
